

Town Government

A LITTLE HISTORY

The name of the first town chairman could not be located but the following men acted as chairmen and county supervisors in the period of 1870-1892: John G. Grosse, C. Kuntz, B. Etten, D.H. Martin Touhey and N. Altmeyer. Town treasurers in the period of 1860-1898: John G. Gross, Charles Krueger, Francis Snyder, Herman Natzke, Nicolos Altmeyer, Fred Borneman, Michael Natzke, Nicolos Etten, Frank Frosch, Gotthief Natzke, Wm. Lemke, Joe Quinnette, Chas. Wendt, Chas. Hubrig, M.J. Flaherty.

Some of the other previous town chairmen were as follows: Wm. Saenger, Henry Wendt, Anton Otto, Rufus Kruse and Walter Beyer.

While checking the records of 1871-1886, a few other interesting items came to light.

In 1875 the town of Morrison showed the highest real estate value of any town in Brown County.

In the gubernatorial election of 1873 the town cast 118 votes for Taylor, a Democrat, and no votes for Washburn, the Republican candidate.

In 1886 terrible forest fires raged through the area that burned the countryside and stopped the mail from getting through.

TOWN HALL – THEN AND NOW

The town has seen a little change in the last year, in the realm of town owned buildings. The old town hall built in the early 1900's made it's way down the road to its new resting place, the home of Mike Denor. He had the winning bid of $3,000 to call it his own. The last town vote was held in the old town hall on November 2, 2004.

The new town hall was built in 2004, and was ready for its first meeting on December 14th. The town hall was designed and built by Bayland Builders out of Green Bay. It was built on the same lot just a few feet away from the old town hall. The town hall is approximately 2,700 square feet with the capacity to hold about 90 people.
